

Extra support for Primary Science in your school

The Association for Science Education (ASE) is a professional community that supports science subject leaders to develop excellent science teaching and learning. Join our network today!

Primary Membership benefits include:

- Primary Science CPD the ASE community puts together events from TeachMeets and workshops, to our flagship Annual Conference.
- The Primary Science Magazine Recent issues have covered topics such as sex education and life cycles, engineering education, maths and science, and family learning. Packed with ideas from other science leaders. In addition, your subscription includes the ASE magazine Education in Science and access to the complete archive online.
- The Primary Science Leaders' Survival Guide and the Primary Upd8 Collection online resource from fellow educators on all aspects of delivering science in primary schools.
- And lots more! Members have the opportunity to get involved with local events, national committees or sharing your views. You will also receive discounts in the ASE bookshop which has a range of highly-recommended titles for teachers.
- Trainee Teacher Special Offer Receive one free CPD Day at ASE Annual Conference and purchase the ASE Guide to Primary Science Education for only £17.00.
